

Contact: Peggy
Popelars
910.279.4616

For Release 3/6/2023

2023 Southport Spring Festival to be held April 7 & 8 in Franklin Park

The Southport Spring Festival, an annual tradition, held for almost three decades, will kick-off Easter Weekend on Friday, April 7 at 10 am in Franklin Park at the corner of Howe & East West Streets in downtown Southport. Thousands of residents and visitors from local towns across North Carolina and the East Coast will attend the annual Festival on Friday, April 7 from 10 am to 5pm and Saturday, April 8 from 10 am to 4 pm.

Over 160 crafters showcasing handmade arts and crafts will be featured along with musical entertainment, children's activities, a flower/plant sale, and popular food vendors. There will even be a trackless train for extra fun. Admission is free. The event is sponsored by Downtown Southport, the Southport-Oak Island Kiwanis Club and the City of Southport.

For more information, visit DowntownSouthport.org.

XXX